This colouring book celebrates the diversity of animals and the way our beautiful queer communities exist far beyond the realms of human culture. So many of us grew up with wildlife programs and school biology classes that never once mention these natural aspects of life on Earth. It was all 'male meets female, seduces her with his bright feathers or funky dance and they very quickly mate.' The implication has always been that that the whole point of life is to make little baby animals and there was nothing in the great natural world that might challenge the cis-het norms of biologists. This entertaining and educational resource, created by trans woman and ecologist Otter Liefte, and richly illustrated by Anja Van Geert, liberates this knowledge and helps free us all to express our true selves. Detailed and ready-to-color drawings of 47 species: rhinoceros, snow leopard, giraffe, reindeer, gorilla, tiger, giant panda, elephant, kangaroo, many more. Brief captions describe habits of each species. Colorists will find this volume entertaining and educational; artists and designers will find practical use for the royalty-free illustrations. 40 black-and-white illustrations. Captions. Eighty pages of coloring and activity fun on the farm! Pages of perky piglets, cute calves, fabulous foals, and many more energetic baby farm animals make for hours of coloring and activity fun! Solve the mazes, connect the dots, play matching games, and more in this adorable coloring and activity book.
